Post Chorus:

You're so, you're so good
You're so, you're so good

Verse 1:

I'll trust You in the pruning
You take away everything I don't need
I'll trust You in the dying
You're the joy that's set before me

PreChorus:

I've learned there's nothing I need but You
I'm thankful for every season with You

Chorus:

I'm gonna lift up my hands
I'm gonna sing out with praise
In the middle of it all
In the middle

Chorus:

I'm gonna lift up my hands
I'm gonna sing out with praise
In the middle of it all
In the middle

Post Chorus:

You're so, you're so good
You're so, you're so good

Verse 2:

Your word, my food
Your presence, my drink
I've tasted and I have seen
Everything with You is possible
Every little step is a miracle

Bridge:

At my end, new life begins
Spring time's coming, it's surely coming
I've sown in tears, I'll reap in joy
Spring time's coming, it's surely coming
